Skaters Busy Preparing For Annual Ice Carnival

Members of the Drayton Valley Figure Skating Club have been busy for some time with plans for the Annual Ice Carnival and as the show date approaches hectic activity is in full swing preparing costumes and sets and polishing routines.

This year's Carnival, the 15th Annual, will be held on two days with an evening performance on Friday, April 10th followed by a Saturday matinee and another evening show on the 11th.

Theme of this year's show is "Fantasy Land" and characters depicted will range all the way from Pinochio to the Pied Piper. About 200 skaters, from beginners to instructors, will take part in the performance.

After Mayor Tom Johnson opens the show, spectators will be transported to a land of fantasy by costumed skaters before a backdrop of colorful sets and lighting.

A highlight of the Saturday evening performance will be the crowning of the Carnival Queen during intermission.

Three girls are competing for the queen title and are now busy selling tickets which will account for a portion of the judges' total points. The three are Sherry Anderson, sponsored by the Producing Companies; Joy Meraw, sponsored by the Frank Maddock High School; and Jo-Anne Swendseid, sponsored by the Service and Supply Companies.

The Carnival is sponsored annually by the Figure Skating Club and the Rotary Club with proceeds going back into skating operation and the work of Cubs and Scouts in the Community.

SKATING CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY

There will be a general meeting of the Figure Skating Club on Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers. This will be the final meeting before the Ice Carnival on April 10th and 11th.

N.D.P. Leader Sees New County Within Electoral Boundaries

NDP Leader Grant Notley toured the Drayton Valley area on Saturday, March 28th. He was accompanied by Lars Larson of Alder Flats, the provisional President of the Drayton Valley NDP Constituency Association.

Commenting on local issues, Mr. Notley said that the new boundaries of Drayton Valley constituency should lead the way to a reorganization of local government in the area. "It makes sense to me" he added, "to set up a county taking in the approximate area of the new constituency." Drayton Valley would be the natural centre for a county where residents would have common interests and common problems. Such a move would facilitate the provision of provincial government services, too, such as Ag. Rep. and District Home Economist.

Looking to the future, the NDP Leader stressed the need for a provincial program involving financial incentives to encourage industry to develop in the smaller Alberta centres. Today, he said, the trend is toward centralization in Edmonton and Calgary. While a federal incentive program is in existance, it applies to southern Alta and the Lesser Slave Lake district only. It's up to the provincial government to introduce a paralel program designed to disperse industrial development throughout the province. "We have," he added "too many one industry towns in Alberta."

On the provincial level, Mr. Notley called for public ownership of power. He pointed out that Alberta is the only province

Hand-gun Meeting

An organizational meeting for a local hand-gun club was held recently with enough interest shown to warrant a further meeting. The meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 2nd in Mayhew Motors.

All interested are invited to attend and help get the new club underway.

Contest Awards Presented

Students in Grades 6, 7 and 8 of Drayton Valley schools took part in the recent poster contest sponsored by the Drayton Valley Rotary Club and the winners received prizes at the last week's meeting of the club in the Cardium Room on Wednesday, March 25th.

Theme expressed in the posters was "World Peace through World Understanding" in keeping with Rotary International's World Peace Week.

Members of the club and guests judged the posters the previous week and invited the winners to attend Wednesday evening for presentation of prizes.

A winner was selected in each grade with two honorable mentions. All received prizes.

First in grade six was Debbie Daviduk and runners-up were Audrey Schmidt and Janice Fowler.

Grade Seven winner was Brian Schurman and runners-up were Deena Davies and Kim Hammond.

First in Grade Eight was Brian Telford, with runners-up prizes awarded to Evelyn Obst and Maryann McGee.

Rotary president Bob Mayhew presented the prizes and offered his congratulations to the winners and the many other contestants who submitted excellent posters that put club members to considerable thought in selecting the eventual winners.

Rotarian Richard MacDonald, Principal of St. Anthony's, conducted the contest for the club.

LAND ASSEMBLY, HOUSING EXPLAINED TO TOWN COUNCIL

Two representatives of the Alberta Housing and Urban Renewal Corporation attended last Wednesday's meeting of Town Council to explain the details of public housing and land assembly.

Public housing, as explained by Mr. Grandin Thomas, is extended to provide housing accommodation for low income families and individuals who cannot, because of their income, obtain adequate accommodation for their needs at the current market rate.

Units being built in other communities include many duplex homes and single family dwellings.

Financial assistance is available through the Alberta Housing Act with most communities entering a partnership arrangement with Federal and Provincial Governments. Under this arrangement, a municipality may borrow 90% of the total capital cost with the initial 10% born by the municipality.

The loan is amortized over a fifty-year period with the municipality the sole owner of the project and in charge of administration. Operating losses are shared 50% by Federal and 40% by Provincial Government.

Before entering an agreement, a need and demand survey would be undertaken. Council members at Wednesday's meeting, were uncertain about the need for public housing in Drayton Valley.

Land assembly, as explained by Mr. Richard Beaupre, is a method of providing aid to municipalities wishing to assemble raw land for residential development in areas where lack of serviced land is hampering housing growth.

A land assembly project is developed jointly by the three levels of government and offers fully serviced lots in planned subdivisions. Fifteen percent of the capital cost is bome by the Federal Government, 15 percent by the Provincial Government, and 10 percent by the municipality involved.

Assistance, again, is determined by a study of the needs of the community.

Council is also quite interested in the matter of land assembly and both plans are to be given further study.

west of New Brunswick to retain private power.

Turning to a different subject. Mr. Notley labelled the report of the Legislative committee on auto insurence as a plan which will be nothing more or less than open season on the motoring public in Alberta. Compulsory automobile insurance without rate control will simply place all Alberta motorists at the tender mercy of the insurance industry, he said. Agriculture came in for some comments too from Mr. Notley, who said the 1000 dollar loan is a cruel joke and completely inadaquate. While governments are pushing diversification now, unplanned diversification unrelated to the market place could destroy the livestock industry. While diversification may be desirable in the long run, the key must be planning, otherwise the problem of the grain growers one year will be the livestock man's headache next year.

While in Drayton Valley Saturday, Mr. Larson announced plans for a public meeting by the NDP at 8:00 P.M. on Tuesday, April 21st in the Legion Hall.

Report from the Legislature

By TONY COX

Compulsory auto insurance, combined with a no-fault claims benefit has been recommended by a seven man legislative committee.

The 55-page report, which contained 27 recommendations, suggested the province eliminate the present green card system and adopt the mandatory $35,000 liability coverage for all drivers.

Up to $5,000 of that total could be claimed for property damage costs although they would be subject to a $100 deductible clause for all dirvers. In addition, the committee, headed by Roy Ellis (SC-Grouard) recommended the first portion of the $30,000 public liability be handled on a no-fault basis.

Death benefits up to $5,000 would be provided immediately after the accident if the head of the household was killed. Death benefits for children would range from $500 to $1,500 while the variance for a spouse would be from $1,000 to $2,500 depending on age.

Weekly benefits up to $50 would also be paid on a no-fault basis with the payments starting seven days after the accident and lasting for two years.

The report, which suggested that insurance would remain with private carriers also advocated that proof of insurance, or a pink card, be demanded before a driver is issued with licence plates and that insurance companies not be allowed to cancel a policy without the highway minister's permission.

To help speed up settlement claims by persons injured in accidents, the report recommended the 60-day limit which insurance companies have to pay in a multi car accident, should immediately pay into a fund to compensate an innocent victim until final responsibility be resolved.

Last week saw the government introduce a new Social Development Act which offered different services for needy persons who are unemployed and those who are unemployable.

With an emphasis on rehabilitative social welfare, the government intends to financially support the unemployable group while launching a program of employment opportunities for those capable and willing to work.

Amendments to the Labor Act will give the minister greater power to use arbitration where a labor dispute places a life or property in serious jeopardy. Trade unionists have openly stated this could effectively end collective bargaining.

Another section proposes a Public Emergency Tribunal, comprising three or more members appointed by the minister. The award of the tribunal would be binding on both management and labor.

Other amendments involve bargaining procedures affecting the entire construction industry. Picketing will become lawful only outside an employee's place of employment and stronger legislation for equal pay for women are both contined in the Act.

The new Wilderness Act will give wilderness areas full legislative protection. It proposes to preserve their natural beauty and wilderness character against settlement and industrial development for the benefit of future generations.

Mineral development would be prohibited except where the government was committed before the area was designated. Pipeline permits would be restricted and no one, not even the government could construct roads, railway or a landing strip in a wilderness area.

The only method of travel would be on foot, horseback, ski, snowshoes, bicycles or boat. The government intends to hold public hearings on the proposed changes before proceeding with the legislation in 1971.

Education Minister Clark's amendment to the Teacher's Retirement Fund Act will allow teachers with 35 years of classroom experience to be eligible for pensions at 60 instead of the present 65.

Tory MLA for Edmonton West, Lou Hyndman wants legislation to discourage unsolicitored goods or credit cards. The 16th Opposition bill to be introduced this session requests that a recipient of such unsolicitored mail not be held legally liable unless he acknowledges it.

And the word from Premier Harry Strom is no general election until 1971.

Agriculture -- A Bulwark of Our National Economy

A bulwark is defined as a protection or defence against the enemy. The greatest enemy facing the Canadian economy is undoubtedly the rate of inflation, at least if we are to believe the recent efforts of the Federal Government in "holding the line" on government, industry and consumer spending. The recently published White Paper on Taxation is a further indication that the rate of inflation must be curbed at all costs.

A recent article by Dr. Ian F. Furniss, Economist with the Canada Department of Agriculture, provides clear and ample evidence that the Canadian farming industry is one of the last bulwarks in the battle against inflation. Some of the facts he sets out in his article are of particular interest during this time when Canadians need to be reminded of the importance of agriculture.

First of all, based on 1966 figures, the agricultural industry, comprised of 430,522 farms in Canada, sold 3.3 billion dollars worth of farm products. It is estimated that agriculture and the related farm supply, processing and distribution industries employ about 30 per cent of the total labor force in the country. Although the contribution by Agriculture to the Gross Domestic Product is only about 5 to 6 per cent, Agriculture continues to be the leading primary industry in the country.

In prewar years, one Canadian farmer produced "food and fibre" for 11 persons. Today he produces enough for 42 persons. Total investment in the primary agricultural industry is over $22 billion or about $41,000. per worker. Canadian export trade in farm products contributes over one billion dollars to the balance of payments.

The most telling facts emerge when we evaluate the facts as to the amount of food the consumer can buy today with an hour's wages, relative to what an hour's wages would buy twenty years before.

An hour's wages in the manufacturing industry in 1948 would buy 5.3 quarts of milk, and in 1968 the same hour's work would buy 8.4 quarts; 1.5 dozen eggs compared to 4.6 dozen; 1.5 pounds of sirloin steak against 2.0 pounds; 1.8 pounds of pork rib chops, to 2.9 in 1968; 15.1 pounds of flour to 21.5 pounds; 9.9 pounds of bread to 13.2; 10.1 pounds of sugar to 27.4; and 2.3 pounds of potatoes to 4.1.

Statistics show that in 1967, the Canadian consumer spent about twenty per cent of his income on food, whereas it was more than 25 per cent in the immediate post war years. The declining proportion which consumers spend on food means that a greater amount is available for other consumption goods and services or for saving and investment. This is one of the ways in which an efficient agriculture can contribute to economic growth.

The Consumer Price Index during this period under consideration has shown an overall increase of 36 per cent. The increase in farm product prices at the farm level over the same period was only 9 per cent.

After two successive years of poor markets and extremely difficult conditions this 'bulwark' of our national economy is showing signs of erosion and is in danger of crumbling. A large number of our more efficient farmers who are located on viable units, face a critical cash shortage. If these farmers are forced off their farms, it would be to the detriment of the whole Canadian economy.

It is therefore in the national interest that agriculture receive strong support during the next few years. We must convince Canadians -- consumers and politicians -- that an immediate injection of purchasing power into agriculture is not a matter of graciously helping out the farmer, particularly in Western Canada, but is justified from the standpoint of self-preservation and self-interest for all Canadians, This must, however, be looked upon as only a short-term measure.

The long term solution to Canadian agriculture's problems must deal with the sociological implications as they concern those farmers who will be most directly affected by the revolution in agriculture. We must never forget the importance of people. In addition, more attention must be given to the whole area of marketing and finding markets for our agricultural products.

SCHOOL SITE
DRAYTON VALLEY

The following letter was received from the Secretary-Treasurer of the Town of Drayton Valley regarding the proposed school site there:-

"Dear Sir:

A County School Committee delegation headed by Mr. John Tyler attended the meeting of council held this afternoon. They brought up the subject of the proposed site for that school. Mr. Tyler advised Council that at the last meeting of the School Committee held this past week, the Chairman stated words to the effect that the Council of the Town of Drayton Valley was not completely in support of the purchasing of the proposed school site and construction of a new Senior High School thereupon. He then asked Council for a clarification of this information as he had always been of the opinion that the Council favored the construction of a new High School on the proposed site located in NE1/4 9-49-7-W. 5.

"Council immediately assured Mr. Tyler that their views had not changed at all on the subject, that they very much realized the need for a new Senior High School to serve the Drayton Valley area and were in full agreement with the site chosen in NE 1/4 9-49-7-W.5. They then passed unanimously the following motion.:

"That the Council of the Town of Drayton Valley direct thet a letter be written to the School Committee of the County of Parkland No. 31 to confirm that the Council is still very much in favor of the construction of a New High School Building on the site in the NE 1/4 9-49-7-W.5, and that the Council of the Town of Drayton Valley do hereby reaffirm that the Town of Drayton Valley will share the costs of relocating the flowline located diagonally across the parcel, should such be necessary."

It was pointed out to the School Committee that it is not clear what the estimated cost of relocating the flowline is. The Town of Drayton Valley presented an estimate of $3,377.00 while Mobil Oil Canada in their letter stated $4,500.00.

The Committee was requested to meet with the Town of Drayton Valley again to clarify the matter of estimated costs of relocating the flowline on the proposed school site.

It was moved and carried that the matter of deductions and remittances for the Alberta Health Care plan be tabled until the next meeting.

Wildlife Habitat Being Established

Alberta's first wildlife habitat development program has been inaugerated by the Department of Lands and Forests, Hon. Dr. J. Donovan Ross announced recently. Located near Millicent, a 750 acre land unit will be managed primarily for upland game birds and waterfowl.

The first step in this unique project, the Minister said, is the hiring of an operator for the area. The job is currently being advertised, and it is expected that one of the farm operators in the Millicent region will be selected for the position.

Current residence within six miles of the habitat site is one of the contract requirements.

Lands and Forest biologists at the Brooks Research Station will plan and oversee the land-use program, which is based on a multiple-use concept. Normal farming methods will be used, including cereal crops on 130 acres, 165 acres of summerfallow and 350 acres allotted for grazing purposes.

Three acres of crop will be left unharvested in swath as winter feed for the bird residents, and farm chemicals such as herbicides, pesticides and fungicide will not be used.

Also new "All About Allergy" by the eminent doctors Harris and Shure. This is a long book and deals with the causes, prevention, treatment and cure of allergic diseases. "The Dirty Animal" by Henry Still has given a shocking picture of land, air and water pollution.

SEBA SCHOOL NEWS

Two classes from Seba Beach High School spent an absorbing afternoon in Edmonton on a field trip geared to being both educational and interesting. Accompanied by Mr. H. Anderson and Mr. L. Burke, the social studies 10 and 30 groups toured the Legislative Buildings, observed the House in session and finished off their trip with a fascinating tour through the Provincial Archives Museum. Although their schedule did not allow them to thoroughly discover the museum, everyone seemed to find something to his taste and the consensus of opinion was that it was well worth - while. Thursday, March 19th will stand out in the memory of those students for some time to come.

Mrs. Ferrier, school secretary, gave a big sigh of relief when the whole High School, staff included trooped out of the school on the morning of Friday, March 20th, to invade Frank Maddock High for a High School Visitation.

A group of students from the University of Alberta, NAIT and the Agricultural College presented lively and informative talks about what it is really like to attend these particular institutions. Freshman Orientation Seminars were stressed for the prospective University of Alberta students.

Following talks, a question period covered subjects of interest to students.

On the return trip to Seba, the buses were filled with animated feed-backs from the sessions, as groups discussed and criticized their prospects.

The High School Curling Club put the final gloss in their year with a two-day bonspiel. Twelve rinks participated.

In the first event the winners were: Frank Gilbert's rink-first. Bruce Anderson's rink-second, Judy Milner's rink-third, and Glen Shaw's rink fourth.

In the second event, the rink or Ken Yakimovich took first, with Terry Medd's rink second.

In the third event, Joe Specks rink of Stony Plain was first.

The bonspiel wound up with a buffet banquet from 5:30 till 7:00, sponsored by the High School Curling Club.

On Saturday evening, the curlers and friends enjoyed a dance put on by the Students Union, with the Moss Rose of Edmonton providing the rhythm.

The week-end was thoroughly enjoyed by the many eager curlers and was judged successful by those concerned.

The overall top team in the High School Curling Club is that of Phillip Chechotko.

The second annual School Fair is beginning to show a definite form amongst the mass of sensation and color it was in the first stages. "Seba Super Seventies", brain child of K. Thiessen is open to participants in any way connected with the school. On April 17th, everyone will be welcome to view the results in the school gym.

Challengers Defeat Onoway To Win Highway 16 Title

The Bantam All Stars closed out the Hi-Way 16 League hockey playoffs last Tuesday by downing the Onoway Bantams 5 to 4, to win the finals in two straight games. The game was played in Stony Plain.

The Challengers started off with a bang and at the end of the first period they were out in front 3 to 0. As in the first playoff game, Onoway came roaring back in the second period to outscore the Challengers 3 to 1 to pull within one goal.

The third period was a fast skating , hard fought affair.The Onoway team scored with four minutes remaining on the clock to tie the score at four all.

The Challengers came back with a perfectly executed play. Keven Reich passed from the point to Dean Samis in the corner, who in turn laid it right on Mark Hutton's stick in the slot. Mark Hutton fired it past the goalie before he could move.

Much credit must go to Bert Duperron who came up with some sensational saves on breakaways in the final period.

The town can be proud of this group of young boys who have shown skill and sportsmanship and a never say die spirit everywhere that they have appeared during this season.

The Challengers will be closing out the season this week. By the time the paper is out the team will have played an Edmonton team on Monday evening and this weekend they will play a round tournament at Hinton. The All Stars will play three games on Friday and one game on Saturday.

The two teams with the most points after the round robin will play a final game at 9:00 P.M. on Saturday.
